

The English Graduate Student Association

invites you to a roundtable discussion:

Becoming a Public Scholar

Creating and Maintaining an Effective Scholarly Identity Online

Friday, March 28 — 12:30-2 pm

301 Pray-Harrold

Topics of discussion:

- How/why should I start a blog? Is blogging a good use of time?
- How can I make my blog more meaningful to me and to others?
- What do potential & current employers/PhD programs expect of me?
- What are the professional & scholarly uses of social media?
- How much of my personal life should I share publicly?
- Can I maintain personal/fun/unprofessional social media accounts?
- How might my professional relationships be enhanced or endangered by social media?

All EMU undergraduate & graduate students, lecturers, & faculty are welcome.

Questions? Please contact Joseph Montgomery, jmontg17@emich.edu.

The English Graduate Student Association

invites you to a roundtable discussion:

Becoming a Public Scholar

Creating and Maintaining an Effective Scholarly Identity Online

Friday, March 28 — 12:30-2 pm

301 Pray-Harrold

Topics of discussion:

- How/why should I start a blog? Is blogging a good use of time?
- How can I make my blog more meaningful to me and to others?
- What do potential & current employers/PhD programs expect of me?
- What are the professional & scholarly uses of social media?
- How much of my personal life should I share publicly?
- Can I maintain personal/fun/unprofessional social media accounts?
- How might my professional relationships be enhanced or endangered by social media?

All EMU undergraduate & graduate students, lecturers, & faculty are welcome.

Questions? Please contact Joseph Montgomery, jmontgr17@emich.edu.